

„The Mini Coastal Explorer“ - a tour suggestion for 3-4 weeks -

This tour suggestion (3-4 weeks) is starting in Durban, the capital of KwaZulu Natal. After spending a couple of days in the city with the biggest Indian community out of India, the tour is going southwards along the Wildcoast, stopping in Mpande (The Kraal) and/or Coffee Bay, to Cintsa. Next stop is Hogsback in the Amatola Mountains. From there the route is going to East London and Port Elizabeth (P.E.), which is quite close to the Addo National Park. After entering the Garden Route the tour is stopping in Jeffreys Bay, Knysna and Hermanus before Cape Town is finally arrived.

1st stop - Durban, KwaZulu Natal

Things to do: City Tour, Queen Victoria Market, Beach, Weekends

2nd & 3rd stop - Wildcoast, Eastern Cape

Things to do: horse riding, hiking, canoeing, Village tours, surfing, fishing, dolphin/whale watching, tours to “Hole in the Wall”, surfing, canoeing, walks, abseiling

4th stop - Cintsa, Eastern Cape

Things to do: beach horse rides, game drives, Transkei daytrips, bike rides, surfing

5th stop - Port Elizabeth, Eastern Cape

Things to do: Addo National Park

6th stop - Jeffreys Bay, Eastern Cape

Things to do: surfing, outlet store shopping

7th stop - Knysna, Western Cape

Things to do: scuba diving, tours to the Knysna Heads, Monkeyland, Beach etc.

8th stop - Hermanus, Western Cape

Things to do: whale watching (July - December), sea kayaking, shark diving

9th stop - Cape Town, Western Cape

Things to do: see the tra:mag city guide "Cape Town" for all bookings (BazBus, car rental, tours, accommodation) see

<http://www.travelcomments.com> - your online travel guide through Southern Africa